Empowering your administrators and business users with instant access to critical knowledge, when and where they need it most, has fast become an essential part of any training plan.

Why e-Learning?

- Available anytime, anywhere
- Enables more people to learn
- Caters to different learning styles
- Serves as new or refresher training
- Delivers consistent, effective training
- Reduces travel and time away from the office
- Makes effective use of time by learning just enough, and just in time

Cognos award-winning offerings are delivered in two self-paced formats to help you accelerate knowledge transfer and increase user adoption within your organization.

COMPUTER-BASED TRAINING (CBT)

Through overviews, interactive exercises and quizzes, computer-based training provides business users with the skills they need to use their Cognos application in their jobs.

Just a few titles currently available:

- PowerPlay Web Exploration
- Cognos Planning Contributor Quick Start for Business Users
- Cognos ReportNet Ad Hoc Querying
- Cognos ReportNet Introduction to Report Authoring
- Cognos Quick Start for School Administration

BUSINESS RECORDINGS

Business Recordings are intended for those individuals who just need a quick overview of their new Cognos application and the benefits it provides to their business. These recordings are developed in your environment, with your data, and come with a Quick Reference Card and User Guide.

LET US HELP YOU

We believe an effective training program reduces the time it takes for users to learn and adopt new technology and will lead to greater satisfaction overall. Whether you choose to attend public training or take advantage of our e-Learning optiPons, let Cognos Training Services assist you in developing comprehensive training plans to meet your needs.
